CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Welcome to Jewish Family Service of Greater Harrisburg, Inc. Our goal is to make your experience at JFS as productive and beneficial as possible. As a client of JFS, you have rights and responsibilities as you participate in our programs and/or receive services.

Statement of Client's Rights:

1. JFS serves anyone in need within its service area, and will not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, country of origin or religion. You have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect.
2. You have the right to fair and equable treatment without discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, age, country of origin or religion.
3. You have the right to receive information communicated in a manner appropriate to your age, cognitive, and/or linguistic ability.
4. You have the right to receive services appropriate for your needs.
5. You have the right to be referred to another program or service if your needs exceed the services available through JFS.
6. You have the right to participate in the treatment planning process and decisions regarding services.
7. II you are over the age of 14, you have the right to consent or refuse treatment or involvement in our programs or services, unless such authority has legally been given to someone else. Should you choose to refuse services, JFS staff will advise you of the potential consequences or effects of discontinuing services. JFS reserves the right to determine guardianship status for minor children and dependent adults.
8. You have the right to privacy. Your relationship and communication with JFS staff and any personal information and/or records are kept confidential. JFS will only release information with appropriate written authorization, except as required by law or professional ethics. Confidentiality will not be maintained in the case of suspected child abuse or neglect or if the client poses a threat to themselves and/or others.
9. You have the right to express concerns or complaints about the services provided through JFS in accordance with the Grievance Policy without fear of recrimination, and for such concerns or complaints to be addressed and, whenever possible, satisfactorily resolved.

Statement of Client Responsibilities:

1. You are responsible for participating in the treatment service or program.
2. You are responsible for behaving appropriately within the treatment service area.
3. You are responsible for attending all scheduled appointments. Your appointment time is reserved exclusively for you. If you must cancel an appointment, do so at least 24 hours in advance or you may be charged a fee for the appointment.
4. You are responsible for payment of any fee-based services at the time of your appointment. It is your responsibility to contact your insurance regarding coverage information and fee reimbursement. JFS will provide you with any invoices or receipts for your insurance company, should you have coverage that may reimburse you.. You may apply to have your fee adjusted based upon a sliding scale. You will be expected to pay your fee at the time of your appointment even if you have sliding scale fee.
5. JFS makes every effort to inform clients of the basic expectations it has for individuals using its services and any activity which could result in discontinuation of service. JFS reserves the right to terminate services if a client becomes abusive, violent, or in any way threatens a staff member; or if JFS believes continuation may create risk to the client, staff or other clients. JFS may also refuse to serve a client who does not wish to participate in the treatment planning or comply with a specific program requirement; if client is an active substance abuser; or if the client misses three appointments in a row without 24 hour notice or reasonable explanation. If JFS terminates service, the client will be given the names of three referral sources.

I understand these rights and responsibilities.

AUTHORIZATION FOR TREATMENT - MINOR UNDER AGE 14

Name of Client _____ Date of Birth _____ Age _____

In cases where the client is a minor, and there is a custody order issued by the court, our agency policy requires that you furnish us with a photocopy of your current Custody Order as it relates to the minor child. In family law matters, Joint (or Shared) Legal Custody can be awarded separate from Physical Custody. The Custody Order will typically state who has Legal Custody and who may make decisions about or consent to medical and/or mental health treatment. Orders specifically requiring shared medical and/or mental health decision-making will require the consent of both parties for the child to be seen by the therapist.

If you need help determining your rights to obtain and authorize mental health treatment for your child, please contact your legal representative.

Please complete EITHER Box A or Box B:

A ☐ There is no current Custody Order regarding this child.

I, _____, give my consent for the above-named minor child to enter outpatient mental health treatment at Jewish Family Service of Greater Harrisburg, Inc.

I understand that participation in this program is voluntarily and I may revoke this consent at any time.
