

JFS AGENCY NEWS AND UPDATES April 27, 2018

Learn the Warning Signs of Mental Illness at the next Mental Health Training

Join JFS and the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Institute for a Mental Health Training on May 3 from 10am - 2pm at the Jewish Community Center's Spector Lounge.

You will learn about warning signs of mental illness, a step-by-step action plan to help individuals, and the resources available to help someone with a mental health problem. A light lunch will be served as part of the training.

Email Ruth or call 717-782-2188 to register. Please provide your full name, telephone number and email address when registering.

One Door Closes and Another Opens

JFS bids a bittersweet farewell to our friend and colleague Lori Weitzman, long-time coordinator of Kosher Meals on Wheels and Two's Company, as she moves on to pursue a wonderful new opportunity. Lori is deeply appreciated for her kindness, generosity, and dedication to both JFS and her clients and will be missed.

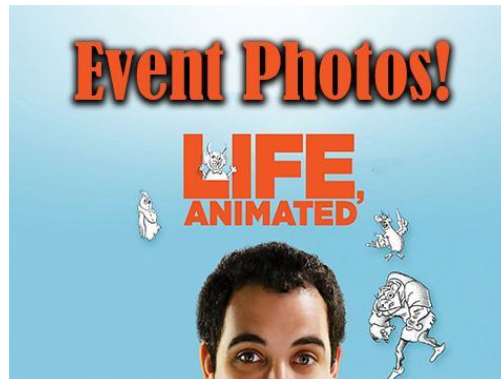

JFS also welcomes Cherie Krause to the role of KNOW coordinator. Cherie is an RN with a diverse professional background in nursing. We are very excited to integrate her broad skill set into the program and look forward to the creative ideas and positive energy she will bring to KMOV.

Life, Animated: What a Night!

On April 15th, Jewish Family Service held its signature fundraising event of 2018, hosting Pulitzer Prize- winning author Ron Suskind for a discussion and screening of the documentary, Life, Animated.

A large audience was on hand to support JFS and learn more about the impact that autism has on children and families. The proceeds will enable JFS to continue its important work throughout our community.
