CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Welcome to Jewish Family Service of Greater Harrisburg, Inc. Our goal is to make your experience at JFS as productive and beneficial as possible. As a client of JFS, you have rights and responsibilities as you participate in our programs and/or receive services.

Statement of Client's Rights:

- 1. JFS serves anyone in need within its service area, and will not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, country of origin or religion. You have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect.
- 2. You have the right to fair and equable treatment without discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, age, country of origin or religion.
- 3. You have the right to receive information communicated in a manner appropriate to your age, cognitive, and/or linguistic ability.
- 4. You have the right to receive services appropriate for your needs.
- 5. You have the right to be referred to another program or service if your needs exceed the services available through JFS.
- 6. You have the right to participate in the treatment planning process and decisions regarding services.
- 7. II you are over the age of 14, you have the right to consent or refuse treatment or involvement in our programs or services, unless such authority has legally been given to someone else. Should you choose to refuse services, JFS staff will advise you of the potential consequences or effects of discontinuing services. JFS reserves the right to determine guardianship status for minor children and dependent adults.
- 8. You have the right to privacy. Your relationship and communication with JFS staff and any personal information and/or records are kept confidential. JFS will only release information with appropriate written authorization, except as required by law or professional ethics. Confidentiality will not be maintained in the case of suspected child abuse or neglect or if the client poses a threat to themselves and/or others.
- 9. You have the right to express concerns or complaints about the services provided through JFS in accordance with the Grievance Policy without fear of recrimination, and for such concerns or complaints to be addressed and, whenever possible, satisfactorily resolved.

Statement of Client Responsibilities:

- 1. You are responsible for participating in the treatment service or program.
- 2. You are responsible for behaving appropriately within the treatment service area.
- 3. You are responsible for attending all scheduled appointments. Your appointment time is reserved exclusively for you. If you must cancel an appointment, do so at least 24 hours in advance or you may be charged a fee for the appointment.
- 4. You are responsible for payment of any fee-based services at the time of your appointment. It is your responsibility to contact your insurance regarding coverage information and fee reimbursement. JFS will provide you with any invoices or receipts for your insurance company, should you have coverage that may reimburse you. You may apply to have your fee adjusted based upon a sliding scale. You will be expected to pay your fee at the time of your appointment even if you the sliding scale fee.
- 5. JFS makes every effort to inform clients of the basic expectations it has for individuals using its services and any activity which could result in discontinuation of service. JFS reserves the right to terminate services if a client becomes abusive, violent, or in any way threatens a staff member; or if JFS believes continuation may create risk to the client, staff or other clients. JFS may also refuse to serve a client who does not wish to participate in the treatment planning or comply with a specific program requirement; if client is an active substance abuser; or if the client misses three appointments in a row without 24 hour notice or reasonable explanation. If JFS terminates service, the client will be given the names of three referral sources.
