

JFS AGENCY NEWS AND UPDATES February 22, 2019

Back On Track Fund Moving Community Members Forward

Thanks to the generosity of Michael and Ellen Geduldig, Jewish Family Service has helped numerous individuals and families in our community through the Back on Track Fund.

The fund provides support for members of our community who have hit a stumbling block in their daily lives and need an extra push to get back on track, whether it be through financial assistance or help in accessing other critical resources.

"It's always about moving forward," says Ellen Geduldig. Read the full story here.

Long-time Friends Come Together To Volunteer For JFS

JFS is always looking for dedicated volunteers willing to contribute their time in a meaningful way to help us achieve the goals and mission of the organization.

Recently, two friends and volunteers of JFS shared their story of the camaraderie and fulfillment they have found while volunteering at JFS.

Click here to read their story. For more info on volunteering, contact Barry at 717-233-1681.

Save The Date: Turning Crisis Into Hope

Join Jewish Family Service of Harrisburg for a compelling program that addresses the mental health impact of the opioid crisis which is touching all corners of our community. Turning Crisis Into Hope: Opioids, Trauma, and Raising Resilient Children, will take place on Sunday, April 28th at 6:30 PM in the Mary Sachs Auditorium of the Harrisburg JCC.

Speakers at the event include Dr. Rachel Levine, PA Secretary of Health, and Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg, Director of Health Services at Covenant House Pennsylvania and a pediatrician specializing in adolescent medicine at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Click here for Dr. Rachel Levine's bio.

Visit our Website

Jewish Family Service of Harrisburg | 3333 N. Front St. Harrisburg, PA 17110
717-233-1681 | info@jfsophbg.org

CONNECT WITH US ON FACEBOOK!