Happy Passover from Jewish Family Service

In this season of celebration, Jewish Family Service wishes all of our community members a happy, joyous, and peaceful Passover! We will continue the tradition of welcoming the stranger into our homes by facilitating the well-being of families and individuals throughout the Harrisburg community.

Finkelstein-Cohen Kasher Meals on Wheels Volunteers Deliver Kasher for Passover Food Baskets

Thank you to all who donated and delivered food items for our Passover edition of the Finkelstein-Cohen Kasher Meals on Wheels Program.

You have ensured that all in our community have the opportunity to celebrate a joyous Passover, regardless of family, health, or financial situation.

For more information on the Finkelstein-Cohen KMOW Program, contact John Jantos, at 717-233-1681 x 3008.

JFS Receives Legacy Program Incentive Grant

Year 4 of the Life and Legacy Initiative has taken a lot of hard work and dedication from our staff, volunteers, and contributors, and those efforts have paid off!

We want to thank you for helping us achieve the goals set by the Legacy program. Thanks to you, we not only received a $7500 incentive from the Jewish Community Foundation of Central PA, but have also ensured that JFS and the Greater Harrisburg Jewish community will flourish into the next generation.

Tickets are Going Fast: Turning Crisis Into Hope

We are less than two weeks away from our signature annual event, Turning Crisis Into Hope: Opioids, Trauma, and Raising Resilient Children, featuring PA Secretary of Health Dr. Rachel Levine and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Pediatrician Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg.

We hope to see you as we explore this important topic at the Harrisburg JCC on Sunday, April 28th at 6:30pm!
