

JFS AGENCY UPDATE May 2019

Turning Crisis Into Hope: A Great Success

Our program last month, Turning Crisis Into Hope, was an informative and thought-provoking look into the mental health impact of the opioid crisis.

The event featured Dr. Rachel Levine (pictured), Secretary of Health for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg, expert in adolescent medicine from the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

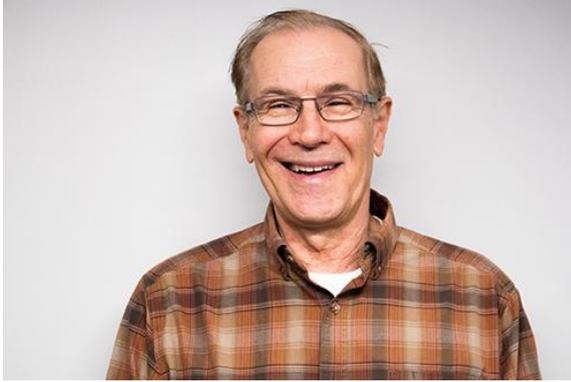

Thank you to all of our presenters, donors, staff, volunteers, and attendees who helped to make the event a success.

Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg's presentation, in particular, spoke to how we can keep families resilient in the face of traumatic experiences. Click here for a short video clip of part of his talk.

JFS Welcomes New Finkelstein - Cohen KMOW Coordinator

Jewish Family Service is pleased to announce its hire of a new Finkelstein - Cohen Kosher Meals on Wheels program coordinator, longtime JFS volunteer, John Jantos.

Before retiring and volunteering at JFS, John owned multiple small businesses. He is looking forward to growing and expanding the program.

Teen Learns How Therapy Makes A Difference

Jewish Family Service was fortunate to have Maleah Keller serve as an intern this year as part of her senior project through Cedar Cliff High School.

Maleah hopes to become a forensic psychologist and apply the skills she acquired during her time at JFS.
