

Job Description

JOB TITLE: Child Therapist, Jewish Family Service of Greater Harrisburg

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Reports to Director of MyndWorks Counseling

Qualifications: Master's Degree in Social Work or related human services field from an accredited college, and a minimum of three years of either professional or volunteer experience in a mental health outpatient setting. Independent Pennsylvania licensure to the highest level available in the state. Ability to communicate effectively with clients and family members, staff, collateral agency workers, and referral sources. Individuals should be able to organize their work and communicate effectively orally and in writing.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Assess client's needs
2. Develop treatment plan to address client needs, and update on a regular basis
3. Provide outpatient mental health therapy to children and adolescents and their parents/guardians, to include individual and family sessions
4. Coordinate and lead social skills group therapy sessions
5. Coordinate and lead support group for siblings of children with special needs
6. Consult with parents/guardians regarding progress in therapy
7. Consult with community resources and other service providers for the purposes of referral to services, treatment planning, and coordination of care
8. Meet with clinical supervisor a minimum of one hour per month, to review cases, develop skills, and ensure provision of quality services to clients
9. Attend clinical supervision group a minimum of one hour per month to review cases, develop skills, and ensure provision of quality services to clients
10. Maintain professional license by meeting all requirements of the state licensing board, including continuing education
11. Report to the Program Director or another staff as assigned by the Executive Director

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and a resume electronically to info@jfsofhhbg.org