

JFS AGENCY UPDATE FEBRUARY 1, 2021

Jewish Family Service is excited to share and invite you to join us for a month of education, solidarity-building, and empowerment in support of people with disabilities as part of JFNA's Jewish Disability Advocacy Month.

Check out the programs below from JFS' affiliated partners Network for Jewish Human Service Agencies and RespectAbility.

Networking & Community Building Workshop (with RespectAbility)

Thursdays - February 4 , 11, and 18 | 3pm

Join RespectAbility for a series of convenings for everyone passionate about the advocacy agenda of the JDAM sessions. These informal Zoom sessions will include facilitated discussion, sharing strategies, and action steps to pursue disability justice and inclusion for all.

Mental Health & Isolation
(with Network of Jewish Human Services Agency)
Monday - February 8 | 3pm

One of the most unfortunate by-products of the COVID pandemic has been the need for forced social isolation. Join us to hear about the cutting edge efforts of the Jewish human service sector to help people weather this crisis and learn communal strategies to reduce the stigma that often prevents those in need from seeking help.
